JORDANS CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS

As previously announced, a working group has been formed to co-ordinate and develop activities to mark the Centenary of the founding of Jordans Village. The working group currently comprises Alan Evers (acting Chair), Sebastian Bunce, Ali Cork, Ann Floyd, Clare

Golding, Pat Holdsworth, Jackie Lomas, Emma Pegram and David Wooster. Many ideas have been received and are being developed. We are still interested to receive suggestions which can be passed to any of the above or to Chris Jenkins in the Estate Office. We are considering commemorative items, events and more, so any suggestion is welcome.

CENTENARY FOUNDERS' SUPPER WEEKEND

SAVE THE DATE: FRIDAY 15th TO SUNDAY 17th FEBRUARY 2019

In place of the annual Founders' Supper we are planning a full weekend of events aimed at all age groups and hope to involve as many residents as possible. The centrepiece will remain the Founders' Supper on Saturday night. Further details will emerge as costing and funding questions are addressed!

Events will take place from FRIDAY 15th TO SUNDAY 17th FEBRUARY 2019. The weekend marks the start of the Bucks schools spring half-term holiday. We urge everybody to try to reserve this weekend to participate in village celebrations.

HELP WANTED

Details of how to get involved in the organisation and running of all events will be communicated later. At this early stage we are very keen to hear from anybody who is, or has contacts who are, directly involved in: Event Planning; Marquee Hire; Event Catering. Our financial constraints will be considerable to ensure that all events are affordable for all residents. Any help in reducing costs for the listed items will be a huge contribution to the success of our efforts. If you can help, please contact any member of the working group or Chris in the Estate Office.

Alan Evers, Acting Chairman, Jordans Centenary Working Group

If there is a subject that you'd like to talk about in this regular column, please send your submission to the Editorial team, whose contact details you will find at the foot of this message.

Thanks to Ali Cork for the snowy images of Jordans in this month's issue

News from Jordans Village Community Store

What an amazing start to March. It is rather reminiscent of '63 - I am really showing my age!
A short update from the JVCS Committee this month:

The 2019 Jordans Village Calendar - Centenary Edition

As you may have gathered from the photographs around this article I am bringing this exciting venture for our centenary year to your attention. Please grab every opportunity to take photos of the village and/or activities going on in our community. These are to be submitted to the JVCS Committee by the 1st September and the most appealing dozen - one representing each month - will be feature in the calendar. All submitted will be printed and be displayed in an exhibition in our shop. No photographic skills are needed or a sophisticated camera - just seize the moment with your phone!

Andy Holdsworth's Race Night: Saturday 21st April @ 7:30 pm

The next big fund raising event for the shop is on SATURDAY 21st APRIL at 7.30 pm in the Village Hall. A tried and tested formula for a really great fun - and maybe lucrative! - evening. Save the date and watch out for the tickets arriving in the shop. Bring your own drinks and eats.

Thank You!

Lastly as always a very big thank you to all who support the shop so much, we are in a very different place than a year ago but please remember without ALL our villagers' continuing support both with shopping on a regular basis and fund raising events we will never be able to breathe easily. We still say unreservedly USE our shop or we will lose it.

News from Jordans Picture House (JPH)

Please refer to our website www.jordanspicturehouse.co.uk for up to date ticket figures & booking information.

Jordans Picture House extends its season

We are delighted to announce that the Jordans Picture House Season will be extended for an additional two months. The current programme would have finished in April with the screening of “Hunt for the Wilderpeople” on Sunday April 15th but the offer through Cinema for All of a catalogue of recordings of live performances from theatre, opera and ballet with relatively low licence fees prompted us to experiment with a pilot in May of three recordings of live performances from the National Theatre – an opportunity too good to miss.

FRIDAY May 11th - The Audience (PG)

Doors open 7:15 P.M. for 8:00 P.M. start

“For sixty years Elizabeth II has met each of her twelve Prime Ministers in a weekly audience at Buckingham Palace – a meeting like no other in British public life – it is private. Both parties have an unspoken agreement never to repeat what is said. Not even to their spouses. Dame Helen Mirren reprises her Academy Award winning role as Queen Elizabeth II in the highly-acclaimed West End production of The Audience from NT Live.” It would be interesting to speculate on the audiences with Teresa May, particularly on the topics of “strong stable government,” the Union with particular reference to Scotland and Northern Ireland and any tips TM could give Betty on the next Prime Minister, as the Palace had a book running on it.

SATURDAY May 12th - The Deep Blue Sea (12A)

Doors open 7:15 P.M. for 8:00 P.M. start

“Carrie Cracknell’s critically acclaimed new production of Terence Rattigan’s devastating masterpiece. When Hester Collyer is found by her neighbours in the aftermath of a failed suicide attempt, the story of her tempestuous affair with a former RAF pilot and the breakdown of her marriage to a High Court judge begins to emerge. With it comes a portrait of need, loneliness and long-repressed passion. Behind the fragile veneer of post-war civility burns a brutal sense of loss and longing.” This play was “live streamed” recently to the community cinema in Cuddington and was well received. Alan Sealy and Chris Waymouth also saw the screening and were very impressed.

SUNDAY May 13th - No Man's Land (15)

Doors open 3:15 P.M. for 4:00 P.M. start

Harold Pinter's comic classic with Ian McKellen and Patrick Stewart.

"One summer's evening, two ageing writers, Hirst and Spooner, meet in a Hampstead pub and continue their drinking into the night at Hirst's stately house nearby. As the pair become increasingly inebriated and their stories increasingly unbelievable, the lively conversation soon turns into a revealing power game, further complicated by the return home of two sinister younger men."

N.B.

- 1. Tickets are priced at £10 each.*
- 2. The May screenings are recordings of live performances from the National Theatre. The run time, including an intermission, will be around 2 hours 30 minutes to 2 hours 45 minutes.*
- 3. Tickets are available either online or from the Box Office from March 1st.*

The three plays we have chosen are all very different and, in addition, by offering three options over the weekend it will give the maximum practical opportunity for you to view one – or all of them.

March 2018

We are thrilled with encouraging ticket sales for our March screenings, so get your bookings in as soon as possible. We open on Friday March 9th with the Oscar and Golden Globe winning "Manchester by the Sea" followed on Sunday 11th with a matinee of the animated masterpiece and BAFTA nominated “Loving Vincent.” There are still tickets available for both screenings.

FRIDAY APRIL 13th The Death of Stalin (15) 2017

Cast: Jason Isaacs; Andrea Riseborough; Olga Kurylenko. Director: Armando Iannucci

Follows the dictator’s last days and depicts the chaos of the regime after his death.

This film has received widespread media coverage and probably as a result was heavily backed in your voting. It was top by a very considerable margin.

SUNDAY APRIL 15th Hunt for the Wilderpeople (12A) 2016

Cast: Sam Neill, Julian Dennison, Rima Te Wiata Director: Taika Waititi

A national manhunt is ordered for a rebellious kid and his foster uncle who go missing in the wild New Zealand bush. This film was well supported in the Vote but has received little media coverage. It is positive and happy and has outstanding ratings on the Rotten Tomatoes website – Tomatometer/Critics 97% Audience Score 91%

Critics Consensus:- The charmingly offbeat Hunt for the Wilderpeople unites a solid cast, a talented film maker and a poignant, funny, deeply affecting message.

Jordans Picture House AGM & Memberships

Jordans Picture House Annual General Meeting will be held on Sunday June 10th at 4:00 P.M. After the AGM, around 5:00 P.M. there will be the final film of the Season. This will be free for Members.

If you are not a Member and if you take out Life Membership for £10 and choose to see our last film (ticket price for non-members £8), the net cost of life membership is just £2 – a bargain.

PLEASE SAVE THE DATE!

As from next season, only paid-up members will be entitled to vote for the film selection and in addition, at the AGM in June, you will be able to vote on which charities should benefit from JPH surplus funds.
